Vision
Forging Africa's Future through Innovation and Social Entrepreneurship.

Mission
The MBA Global Business and Sustainability – Social Entrepreneurship Track prepares a new class of Sierra Leonean entrepreneurs who combine economic success with social and environmental sustainability. The MBA is built around participants’ business ideas, specifically (but not exclusively) in the Agribusiness and Energy access & efficiency sector.

The MBA Program guides active and aspiring entrepreneurs to:
- Transform a business idea into a business plan;
- Develop the business skills necessary to lead a business venture;
- Support in the scaling and growth of the new business after the completion of the degree, and;
- Link entrepreneurs up with an international network of potential partners and investors.

Core Values
- We do not teach entrepreneurship. We train entrepreneurs.
- We offer tailor-made training and actionable business tools.
- We bridge the gap between business ideas and business investment.
- We trigger Team Work, Collaboration and Partnerships worldwide.
- We promote Environmental, Social and Economic Sustainability.
- We have passion for Social Transformation.
- We forge Creativity and Leadership.

Formula
A unique and flexible blend of class lessons, distance learning, and coaching to help MBA participants to apply what they learn to their business while keep on doing business and work:
- Three (3) Intensive weeks of full time classroom and networking sessions;
- Eight (8) Long Weekends of full time classroom;
- Ten (10) Distance Learning Sessions.

Where and When
- University of Makeni (UNIMAK), P.O. Box 2 Azzolini Highway, Makeni (Sierra Leone)
WELCOME MESSAGES

The "MBA Global Business and Sustainability – Social Entrepreneurship Track" aims at creating a concrete answer to one of Sierra Leone’s most pressing needs: employment and job creation. The Program has been designed with a unique formula that combines the academic features of an MBA in Entrepreneurship with actionable business tools and networking opportunities for investments. The aim is to offer participants a chance to keep developing their Social Businesses while understanding the keys to grow them and increase their positive impact on the society.

The Program is structured on a part-time formula to enable participants to keep track of their businesses while attending the course. Distance learning materials and tools have been developed to allow participants to effectively pursue the MBA Program. A team of local and international mentors and coaches support participants in every step they take to start up and grow their businesses. This highly qualified international faculty represents a crucial element for the success of the MBA program.

However, the real plus for participating in the MBA Program is to become part of a system that:

- Supports you in the fine tuning of your business idea;
- Helps you in defining courageous goals, in developing your team building skills, in combining strategic imagination and financial discipline;
- Facilitates access to financing for the implementation and sustainable growth of your business;
- Creates stable links with a network of local and international entrepreneurs.

At the end of the Program, there will be a ceremony where participants will present their business plans to a panel of international entrepreneurs and investors. Links will be created, funds will be raised and ideas will be launched.

Join us, become a social entrepreneur and be part of the change!

Prof. Mario Molteni
Director of ALTIS
Professor of Corporate Strategy
Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore of Milan, Italy
The University of Makeni (UNIMAK) in collaboration with her partner institutions with financial support from the European Commission will start an MBA program in Entrepreneurship focusing to key sectors of Sierra Leone’s economy: Agriculture and Energy. Our entrepreneurship education is a purposeful intervention in the lives of our student to impart entrepreneurial qualities and skills to enable them survive in the world of business.

Entrepreneurship continues to assume a vital role in the Sierra Leone’s economy as well as the economies of many developing nations across the globe. The creation of new business activities has become a major driver in the economy and these greatly affect economic growth, job creation and general prosperity and, to an extent, enhance the national competitiveness of the nation in the global business arena.

In the midst of our growing economy, entrepreneurship is necessary and identifying who entrepreneurs are and where may they be found is fundamental in our academic discourse. Reflecting on what can government do to promote entrepreneurship and what is it that Higher Education can do to develop a greater entrepreneurial awareness in Sierra Leone given that there is ambivalence as to the degree to which entrepreneurship can be taught. The President of Sierra Leone His Excellency Earnest Bai Koroma emphasized this notion during his closing speech on the occasion of setting the vision of innovation in promoting development in Sierra Leone. "We need to build the entrepreneurial spirit of our people. This is because our tertiary institutions have not paid attention to instilling the entrepreneurial spirit amongst our graduates. It would be great to see many of our graduates becoming farmers, starting viable independent engineering firms, business entities, the I can do spirit”.

Our MBA program is tailored to develop cross-functional thinkers who are innovative and have entrepreneurial skills that are needed in the local economy. Entrepreneurs are critical to the long-term health and prosperity of our economy. We believe that entrepreneurs can increase their chances of success with practical education and training; that innovation is key to entrepreneurial growth.

Bringing entrepreneurs together, offering them practical classroom instruction and online business training, and making them aware of the resources in their communities can make a difference in the businesses they launch and lead.

Entrepreneurship courses at UNIMAK can make a very significant contribution in promoting meaningful business, as they could allay the fears of failure of potential entrepreneurs by educating the students about pitfalls and risks to avoid when embarking on a new business venture. Students will thus have a fuller understanding of entrepreneurship as a phenomenon and surely become more competent stakeholders in entrepreneurship at whatever level they will be involved.

Welcome to UNIMAK!

Rev. Dr. Prof. Joseph Alimamy Turay
Vice-Chancellor University of Makeni
WHY THE MBA GLOBAL BUSINESS AND SUSTAINABILITY – SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP TRACK

- Hands-on training: The MBA is built around participants’ business ideas. Over the period of the program, participants apply knowledge and tools they learn to their business idea and receive the preparation and contacts necessary to successfully launch a new and impactful business venture;

- International Degree: The MBA in Global Business and Sustainability - Social Entrepreneurship Track is awarded by the School of Economics of Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Europe’s largest University;

- International recognition and reputation: The MBA is the first non-American Program to receive the Ashoka Innovation Award from the Ashoka Foundation. Ashoka is a global association of the world’s leading social entrepreneurs. It helps them both to get started and succeed over their long lifetime causing large scale and very much needed pattern of change.

- Innovative Formula: The blending of classroom and on-line training allows participants to attend the program while continuing their current job or business;

- Mentorship: Contact and exposure to local and international business people will support MBA participants in the start-up and development of their businesses;

- Coaching: A dedicated business consultant will help participants to develop their business from idea to action;

- Relations with investors: the MBA will organize dedicated events and deal rooms to create a trustful relation between participants and potential investors;

- Locally based with international exposure: The program is held at the University of Makeni and taught by Italian, Kenyan, American and Sierra Leonean Faculty.
FROM BUSINESS IDEA TO BUSINESS PLAN

This MBA program is a “training camp” for active and aspiring social entrepreneurs. It aids the entrepreneur to move from a business idea to a complete and convincing business plan. Each course will directly respond to a concrete need that arises while implementing a start-up or scale-up strategy.

To this purpose, the MBA adopts a very flexible formula. The duration of the program is 12 months and it structured into:

- Three class training periods for lessons and exercise at the beginning (Initial Boot Camp – 8 days), in the middle (Middle Boot Camp – 7 days) and at the end (Final Boot camp – 6 days) of the course;
- Eight Long Weekends from Friday to Saturday (a part from 2 from Thursday to Saturday), every five weeks;
- Ten Distance Learning sessions between Boot Camps and Long Weekend.

The process

1. The Business Idea: As part of the application process, candidates are asked to participate to a Business Idea Competition to present the business idea they intend to develop throughout the course of the Program;

2. Initial Boot Camp | Structuring the Business Model: In the opening week of intensive study, each participant, guided by international lecturers and mentors, scrutinizes his/her business idea. Participants are aided in identifying the idea’s strengths and weaknesses and then structure out a business model, using the Canvas template: this work provides the base upon which day-to-day improvement is undertaken;

3. Distance Learning | Testing the Business Model: Participants start proofing their business models. Each MBA course is applied to develop and validate a specific component of the business model;

4. Middle Boot Camp | Validating the Business Model: Business models are ultimately challenged and validated in the mid-term week of intensive study: weaknesses are fixed, strengths are optimized and the way forward the Business Model paved. At the end of the class period, participants take part to a Business Model Competition to show their work to investors and business partners;

5. Distance Learning | Towards the Business Plan: Participants embark on an going Business Planning lab to work on their the business plan and develop personal skills;

6. Final Boot Camp | Starting off: During the final intensive week of the study, each participant refines his/her business plan with mentors and lecturers and develop a well-structured presentation for investors. Participants will finally present their work to a panel of international investors and partners in the Business Plan Competition.

The Business Coach

A key part of the MBA is the work each participant does with the Business Coach. This invaluable person will provide:

- Individual support in refining the business idea and developing the business plan;
- Potential partners, suppliers, customers etc.;
- Business mentors with specific industry expertise;
- The financial oversight and rigor to assure the creation of an economically sustainable business.

Field Action

Throughout the course, work customized field assignment are designed for each participant, where they test real life feasibility, profitability and impact of their business. Examples of these assignments are in depth market analysis, customer focus groups, an internship with a mentor, or research for and dialogue with potential financial partners.
PROGRAM STRUCTURE

The MBA courses are divided into two main categories:

- Business Courses: aimed to develop, test and validate the business model and acquiring specific managerial knowledge. Business Courses entail both business assignments and traditional examinations;

- Business Labs: aimed to provide hands-on business management and development experience, acquire personal business skills, write the business plan and develop relations with investors. Business Labs do not entail traditional examinations.

NETWORKING EVENTS

Throughout the program, MBA participants work with, and are exposed to investors. This ongoing interaction is the occasion for participants to become familiar with investors' requirements and for investors to understand participants' attitude and ideas. This allows participants to develop their business ideas based on investors' expectation and to create a trustful relationship.

With this aim the MBA organize a series of events with partners, investors and donors.

- Business Idea Competition: In advance to the Initial Boot Camp, all MBA candidates participate in the Business Idea Competition where they present their business ideas to a panel of investors who judge the economic viability and social-environmental impact. This is the occasion for participants to link up with investors and start developing a trustful relationship.

- Business Model Competition: At the end of the Middle Boot Camp, MBA participants take part in the Business Model Competition, where they present their business models to investors in order to show them the actual improvement on the initial business idea. This is the occasion for participants to convince investors that their business “can fly”.

- Business Plan Competition: at the end of the Final Boot Camp, MBA participants refine a full-fledged business plan and prepare a pitch for investors. They present their pitch to a panel of local and international investors with aim to rise investments and start or scale up their businesses.
MBA PARTNERS

AFFORD-SL: The African Foundation for Development in Sierra Leone (AFFORD-SL) seeks to facilitate the creation, protection and maintenance of jobs through practical support of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME). AFFORD-SL relies on support from the African Diaspora who partner with Sierra Leoneans on the ground to provide investment and input on business training through the deployment of Business Coaches and Advisors.

Life by Design: A non-profitable company registered under the Companies Act No. 5 of 2009, primarily to support young Sierra Leoneans discover and live up to their highest potentials in a way that also promotes the common good and sustainable national development. The “Life-by-Design Entrepreneur’s Nest” focuses on identifying young people with creative ideas that they want to turn into business or those that already have start-up businesses that they would like to finance and expand.

Opes Impact Fund: Italian private foundation whose mission is to invest into social enterprises which apply sustainable market-based solutions to solve the most persistent problems affecting the BoP (Base of the Pyramid) population.

Sierra Leone Produce Marketing Company: SLPMC is a limited liability company established by the Government of Sierra Leone to focus on buying and exporting of quality agricultural produce with the objective to ensure good quality exports from Sierra Leone, pay fair and reasonable prices to farmers and develop customer loyalty.

MBA CHAMPIONS

Joseph Nkandu (MBA 2011 Nairobi) founder of Nucafe. "I am really so grateful to ALTIS Postgraduate School of Business & Society for empowering me to develop the agricultural value chains beyond coffee. Today I am implementing two agribusiness projects which are: The Centre for Agribusiness and Farmer Entrepreneurship Enhancement (CAFE) and the Agribusiness Incubator, which is the Consortium for Enhancing University Responsiveness to Agribusiness Development (CURAD)."

Jacqueline Kiage (MBA 2012 Nairobi) Co-founder of Innovation Eye Centre. "The MBA was indeed with a Life Purpose. The concept of sustainability is fascinating and that made the program to open my mind and helped me to see life from a holistic point of view. The MBA has made it possible to create and deliver first class comprehensive eye care services to all in order to “Improve Lives through Affordable Quality Eye Care”.

Ronald Kefa (MBA 2013 Nairobi) Owner of Surelink International. "Attending the MBA was the catalyst that nurtured and reinforced the entrepreneurial spirit within me. I left my employment after graduating in March 2013 to concentrate on the provision of sustainable and affordable housing, using economical and eco-friendly interlocking stabilized soil blocks (ISSB) technology. My aim is to improve the housing conditions of middle-lower and low income Kenyans by applying sustainable building solutions. I’ve been transformed from a "wanna-be" entrepreneur to a real entrepreneur”.

Cecil Senna Nutakor (MBA 2013 Accra) founder of Equinox Intercom Limited. Cecil was declared the winner of the MBA Business Idea Competition in 2013 and has been awarded a full scholarship for the MBA program. He has won several prestigious international awards as a social entrepreneur, including Global Innovators Award, organized by infoDev of the World Bank in 2009. Cecil’s ultimate goal is to become a "Polipreneur" (Political Entrepreneur) in order to address the social injustices of our global society and at the same time continue to build sustainable social ventures.

TAPSEA: THE MBA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

MBA graduates have the unique opportunity to join TAPSEA, the ALTIS Alumni Association of Professional Social Entrepreneurs in Africa. As part of TAPSEA, the entrepreneur would continue to enjoy the professional support of ALTIS, Tangaza University College, UNIMAK and their partner institutions while entering into a network of like-minded, new and established business people where resources, knowledge and relationships can be shared.
