POSITION TITLE: FINANCE AND ACCOUNTING LECTURER

CLOSING DATE: 21/12/15

We are looking for a trained and qualified Lecturer with demonstrated professional experience in Accounting and Finance.

Target: MBA class with 35-40 executive students, each one with a business idea

Commitment:

38 hours teaching in class distributed as follows:

- 10 hours Financial Planning 1 (8-10 January 2016);
- 10 hours Financial Planning 2 (5-7 February 2016);
- 10 hours Financial Planning 3 (4-6 March 2016);
- 8 hours in class Entrepreneurial Finance (4-8 April 2016).

Content/Formation target: to lead the “Accounting and Finance” MBA stream. It provides a theoretical and practical framework to deal with financial issues of entrepreneurial ventures, as well as teaching how to get financial resources.

“Financial Planning” deals with the key financial statements and their roles as external reporting instruments. It also entails the measurement of performance through the use of financial ratios and non-financial measures. The course covers how to present key financials and business plan, as well as key element to understand a company valuation analysis; including key element of a due diligence.

The “Entrepreneurial Finance” course provides a theoretical and practical framework useful for addressing impact capital issues versus impact entrepreneurs, and basically how to get financial resources from grant to debt and equity. The course focus is on the early stages of company development, identifying key questions: if and why money should be raised; when should it be raised and from whom.

Classroom methodology: Interactive lessons combining brief lectures and class participation

Language: English

Profile of the lecturer:

- Studies in the relevant area (PhD non mandatory);
- Strong professional experience in Accounting;
- Experience with Start-Ups and entrepreneurs (preferred);
- Capacity to conduct lessons with a strong focus on practical business skills avoiding frontal teaching.
